REDISTRIBUTION BILL

FINALLY CARRIED WITH- OUT A DIVISION

Conservative Amendments the Cause of Long Discussion in the House.

(Bulletin Special Dispatch).
Ottawa, Sept. 26.—The redistribution bill received its third reading at midnight last night. There was no recorded vote, the bill being declared carried on division.

The whole day was occupied in a discussion on the amendments moved by the opposition.

Winnipeg, Sept. 26th.
SIR THOMAS CONFIDENT.
Sir Thomas Shaughnessy stated that the Canadian Pacific Railway has nothing to fear from competition with the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway.

NEW ONTARIO EXPOSITION.
Arrangements have been completed for holding a New Ontario exposition at Port Arthur and Port William.

SHAREHOLDERS APPROVE.
The cancellation of the lease from the Dominion Coal Company to the Dominion Steel Company is approved by the shareholders.

POLICY CONDEMNED.
The Dominion Trades and Labor Congress passed a resolution condemning the fiscal policy of the former Colonial Secretary, Chamberlain.

HAGGART AIRS HIS OPINIONS.
In the House of Commons yesterday the Hon. John Haggart declared the redistribution bill was merely a confidence game worked on the opposition.

POACHING IN CANADIAN WATERS.
Japanese scows are poaching in Behring sea contrary to the terms of the modus vivendi.

REFUSE ARBITRATION.
The Minneapolis flour-millers refuse to arbitrate their differences with employees, as suggested by the latter.

GRAIN QUOTATIONS.
Winnipeg, wheat, No. 1 hard, 83 cents a bushel.
Winnipeg, oats, No. 2 white, 31 1-2 cents a bushel.

PERSONAL

Several scow loads of coal are unloading along the river at Edmonton.

S. A. Dickson, of Fort Saskatchewan, spent yesterday in Edmonton.

F. J. H. Bodson, arrived in Edmonton yesterday from Peace River.

J. A. Jackson, of Ponoka, arrived in Edmonton on last night's train.

Mr. Ed. Thompson, Government land guide, Wetaskiwin, is in Edmonton today.

X. Sauer, collector of inland revenues, Calgary, left Edmonton yesterday morning for Calgary.

B. C. d'Essim and J. W. Shera, Fort Saskatchewan, were in Edmonton yesterday.

Mr. Montgomery, of the Edmonton Coal Company, has returned to Edmonton from an extended trip in the east.

Arthur Ritchie, of Strathcona, has been appointed postmaster at Vegreville. He will begin his duties on October 1st.

Mrs. R. McIntosh will receive at her home, First Street, on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons, the 29th and 30th of September.

W. J. Hobbs, teacher in the Horse Hills school district, will resign his present situation to accept a position in the Merchants Bank, Fort Saskatchewan.

Victor Lafferty, a half-breed boy about sixteen years old, arrived in Edmonton last week from Fort Nelson, on the Nelson River. He came down from the north with Mr. Nagle and will remain in Edmonton during the winter and will attend school. A number of other boys from the far north may come down to Edmonton next year to attend school.

W. L. Edmonds, managing editor of the Canadian Grocer, and other trade journals of Montreal and Toronto, was one of the party in the deputations of Canadian manufacturers, who were of Edmonton yesterday. He is greatly pleased with his trip through the west and is particularly struck with the progress of Edmonton.

LOCAL.

—Train one and a half hours late.
—The first commercial traveller to visit Vegreville called there last week.

—The Strathcona Baptist church has called to its pastorate Rev. C. W. Corey, of Liverpool, N.S.

—Last night's Winnipeg Free Press contained an account of the famous Labor Day baseball match in Edmonton.

—There is a probability that Bert Orr, the crack baseball twirler, will accept a situation in Edmonton in the near future.

—The touring congress of the Chambers of Commerce of the Empire arrived in Montreal on Wednesday, having concluded their Canadian tour.

—The Doukhobors in western Canada have announced their intention of immediately erecting schools in all their districts. English will be taught entirely.

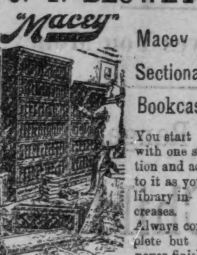

—A number of American land seekers in Edmonton say that it is bad enough to have cool, cloudy weather, but it is a great deal worse to see stacks of grain and hundreds of acres of grain in stacks standing in three and four feet of water. This, they say, is the condition of affairs in many sections of the western States. In a number of districts in the western States, grain is rotting in the fields and sprouting in the stacks. The crop will be damaged to a large extent.

—One of the British editors who recently toured western Canada said: "The future of Canada lies in the hands of her people and it could not be in better keeping. Their energy, confidence and enthusiasm are equalled only by the golden opportunities of her plains. The enormous possibilities of the country cannot easily be over-stated. The striking progress already made is obviously only the precursor of yet greater things to follow, and in her onward march the great Dominion will have no more ardent admirer than the old land over the sea."

—Work is being rushed on the construction of the long distance telephone line in Alberta along the line of the Calgary and Edmonton railway. Several Bell Telephone Company officials have been spending the past few days in Edmonton. Mr. Frank Waisala left Winnipeg a few days ago to visit the different exchanges of this company in the west. He will visit Edmonton in the course of his trip. All this seems to show that the Bell Telephone company intends entering Edmonton with their long distance telephone line, which they are now running from Lettbridge north.

—A large number of the touring Canadian manufacturers called at the Bulletin office yesterday afternoon. Among others were J. B. Allen of the Canadian Typograph Company, Windsor; R. R. Barber, of Wm. Barber and Bros., Georgetown, Ont.; F. M. Ellis, of the Barber and Ellis Company, Toronto; G. Rolland, vice-president of the Rolland Paper Company, Montreal; S. D. Joubert, of H. Lamontagne & Co., Montreal; W. Small, secretary treasurer and manager of the Canada Horse Nail Company, Montreal; J. F. Wildman, of the Office Specialty Manufacturing Company, Toronto, and W. M. Birks, of Henry Birks and Sons, importers and manufacturers, Montreal. Each one of them spoke enthusiastically of their tour through the west and think that the possibilities of this country are wonderful.

—The "Perfect Man" will be the subject of Pastor McDonald's address on Sunday evening at Robertson Hall.

—The report just issued by the Territorial secretary of the Northwest Territories, has been received at this office.

—Instead of the usual quarterly review services, the Edmonton Presbyterian church Sunday school will have what is known as an annual Children's day service, tomorrow, Sept. 27th. Special music will be furnished by the choir of the church. The Sabbath school will meet in the basement of the church at three o'clock, when the attendance will be taken. All the scholars will then march to the main body of the church under the direction of the different Sunday school teachers. All teachers are requested to make a special effort to be present. An address on "Patriotism, what it is, how cultivated, its fruits," will be delivered by Rev. D. G. McQueen. Rev. C. H. Huestis will give an address on the "National Value of Our Sunday Schools." A hearty welcome is extended to the members and adherents of the church to be present at this service.

FROM OTTAWA

Bulletin Correspondence.

The redistribution act was under consideration during the whole of yesterday, and its provisions have all been agreed to in committee of the whole except those relating to the counties of Hastings, Grey and Waterloo in Ontario. Further consideration of the bill will not be resumed until the transcontinental railway bill has passed the committee. There will probably be a number of votes on amendments at the third reading of the redistribution bill for the purpose of placing on record the stand taken by certain members of the opposition in regard to certain constituencies.

The representation of Toronto occupied the greater part of yesterday. The opposition contended that the city should be given larger representation considering its population, and they also objected to the limits of the constituencies into which it has been divided. The number of people entitled to a member is twenty-five thousand. On this basis Toronto, with a population of 298,000 would be entitled to eight members. It has four in the present parliament, and will have five under the redistribution. The contention of the opposition was that the city should have the same representation according to population as the country districts. While it sounds very well to say that a certain number of people should have a representative whether they reside in city or in country, in practice the city would be given thereby a disproportionate representation over the country. The cities are the centres of business, and, therefore, of opinion, with means of distributing that opinion and enforcing it which the country districts do not possess. Besides a certain population in the country districts represents the creative element of national wealth and strength to a degree far beyond that of an equal city population. If manhood suffrage were an accepted principle, as it is in the States, there would be a fair claim for representation of cities absolutely according to population. But so long as the principle is conceded, as it is throughout the provinces of old Canada, that property as well as citizenship is entitled to be considered in connection with the franchise, it would be unfair that the large proportion of non-property owners in the cities should have the same influence as an equal number of property owners in the country parts. The principle which the opposition complained of being applied to Toronto, is and always has been applied to every city in Canada and it is to be hoped, will continue to be so applied.

The further complaint was made that the division of the city into constituencies was not judicious, and was calculated to secure the return of a Liberal member. At present the city is divided into three constituencies, West, Centre and East. The West constituency elects two members and the others one each. The opposition proposed that there should be an east and west division electing two members each, and a centre division electing only one member. This proposition certainly favors as much of gerrymandering as does the government proposal to divide into five single constituencies. During the discussion Mr. McCreary, of Selkirk, Manitoba, pointed out that Winnipeg with sixty thousand population, was better entitled to two members than Toronto was to five, and suggested that Toronto be left with four members.

Manitoba has ten members under the new distribution, an addition of three members to the present number. The boundaries of all the constituencies except one were mutually agreed upon between the Liberal and Conservative members of the committee. Dr. Beuch, of Marquette, protested against his constituency, but received no support from his fellow members of the opposition, and the matter was disposed of as decided by the committee.

The final touch was put to Quebec, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick with comparatively little objection, so that the work on the bill is sufficiently near completion to remove it from the list of measures which are likely to seriously delay prorogation.

The Grand Trunk Pacific bill will come up again on Monday for final consideration in committee of the whole.

It seems possible that the opposition will make a fight to prejudice the government before the country on the proposed amendments to the Audit Act, while taking the full benefit to themselves of those amendments. The intention of the government is not to take up the proposed amendments to the Audit Act until after both the Grand Trunk Pacific and the redistribution, or representation, bill have been disposed of. As members will be unable to draw any portion of their indemnity until the amendments of the Audit Act have been agreed to by the Senate, it is possible that the consideration of the railway and representation bills will be somewhat shortened on that account. The cry is being raised by the leading Conservative papers, "Hands off the auditor general." That official is exalted to the position of a demigod who can't either do wrong or make mistakes, and whose unlimited powers are the only salvation of the country from utter robbery by a Grit government.

It is just as well that this question of the rights and proper uses of the auditor general should be brought to a head now. As pointed out in previous correspondence, this official holds an unique position, absolutely independent of the government as far as his appointment is concerned, and, therefore, not responsible to any one for his actions. He has the interpretation of the law governing his own conduct in his own hands; and has always interpreted it according to his own ideas as to what are the duties and responsibilities of his position, and absolutely without regard to the interest of the members of the public who are entitled to receive the money passing through his hands, or the reputation of the government which has to pay it. Whenever the auditor has seen fit in the past to unduly withhold payment of public monies the government has been in the position that it took measures to compel the payment of the money; it was open to public attack on the charge of attempting to have the money improperly paid; and if it did not make such efforts it was subject to blame by those who should receive the money, as not honestly paying its debts. The government has rather suffered from the imputation of its friends than laid itself open to the attacks of its opponents. But this last incident is of such an aggravated nature that it is felt that the government is driven into a corner, and must either fight the auditor general, or admit that his authority is greater than theirs.

As already mentioned the present trouble began with the Martineau defalcations. A clever young clerk in the militia department had succeeded in robbing the department of $70,000 in one year. The accounts for the year had been audited, the business closed up and four months of the succeeding year had passed before the defalcation was discovered. This was

MANUFACTURERS

Visited Edmonton Yesterday —Disagreeable Weather.

Upwards of one hundred and sixty prominent business men of eastern Canada, members of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, arrived in Edmonton yesterday at about 2 p. m. They have a special train of eleven cars, composed of handsomely equipped C.P.R. sleepers and diners. They were welcomed by the Board of Trade, city council and numerous prominent citizens. A very large number of rigs were at the station to meet them and numbers of the delegates were driven about the city. The great part of the manufacturers, however, left immediately to visit branches of many of their establishments in the city. Others walked about the streets and admired the general appearance of the town. The great amount of building operations in progress was noted. The disagreeable weather which met them on their Edmonton visit was much regretted for it kept the majority of the visitors from seeing the extent of our town. The different manufacturing establishments and large stores in Edmonton were visited. Wagons loaded with Edmonton coal drew considerable attention. The whole afternoon was spent in Edmonton, and the party were greatly taken with the evident prosperity of our city.

A large number of the manufacturers are visiting the west for the first time, and needless to say they have been greatly surprised with the size and vast possibilities of the west. They wish to thoroughly acquaint themselves with the conditions as they exist here and fully believing that this great western country will be a large consumer of manufactured goods, they are making the visit to get information which will guide them in their manufacturing. In this way they will more easily cope with manufacturing concerns in the western States, where the conditions are very similar to those of western Canada. In this way the trip should result in a great deal of good to both eastern and western Canada.

Regarding the purpose of the visit one of the manufacturers said: "I think the great value of this excursion west will be two-fold. In the three weeks the party will see more of the west and get a better idea of its possibilities than they could in months, coming individually. And, secondly, the meeting together of manufacturers from all parts of Canada, the getting acquainted by travelling together, as we never get acquainted at our annual gatherings, the interchange of methods of business in fact, the general swapping of ideas will be of untold benefit, not only to ourselves as manufacturers, but I think also to the west. The trip so far has been delightful, and I am sure we shall enjoy every minute of it."

The manufacturers dined at the Windsor, Alberta and Queens hotels. They left Edmonton about 9 o'clock, and returned south to continue their rapid western trip.

MASS MEETING.

The local Conservatives held a mass meeting in Robertson Hall last night. There was a fair attendance. J. C. F. Brown occupied the chair and speeches were delivered by J. W. Shera, Mr. L. A. Fort Saskatchewan, Mr. Bradbury, of Winnipeg, N. D. Beck, Mr. Bishop, F. Knight, Mr. Moran, A. Kaufman, W. A. Griesbach, Mr. McIntosh, Edmonton, R. Scott, Mr. L. A. was called on but announced that he did not wish to make a speech. The different speakers that referred to the tariff, declared without a single exception, for a high tariff policy and these announcements were received with loud cheers by the meeting. N. D. Beck discussed the lead mining industry in British Columbia and declared strongly in favor of high protection for the lead industry. Mr. Bishop believed in thorough organization and believed that the present government were to blame for the Canadian Northern railway not being in Edmonton two years ago. Mr. F. Knight, of the Sturgeon, announced amid cheers that he favored a high protective tariff as in the interests of the farmers. Mr. Moran dealt with the prospects of the Conservative party in the Northwest Territories, to the great development which the west is now enjoying. He believed in taking Chamberlain for their leader and follow up his work of empire building. He blamed the Liberal government at Ottawa for delaying the granting of provincial status to the Northwest Territories. Canada must protect herself by her tariff on account of being so near the United States, and it would be insanity to take any other stand. He believed that the Conservative party should have and will have the support of the people. Mr. Kaufman believed that a great deal depended on organization work. Every effort should be made to educate the foreigners in this district and in all of Western Canada to an appreciation of the Conservative policy. The Liberals were ac-

We have just unpacked our winter stock of Horse Blankets and Robes, and our showing easily surpasses anything ever offered in the City before. Thirty different kinds of Blankets, from the plain Jutes to the elaborate Stay-ons, and if we cannot suit you we have the satisfaction of knowing that nobody else can. We invite you to examine our stock.

Just a word about Trunks and Valises. We pay particular attention to these goods, and can say as a matter of fact without boasting that our stock is not only the largest but the best assorted in the city. Don't take our word, but come and look around. We have a carload arriving in a few days which will make our stock equal to anything west of Toronto, and that is saying a good deal. Trunks from $1.25 to $40. Valises from 75c to $15, and Suit Cases as high as $35. See our special Ladies' Dress Trunks, nobody else has them. These are all bought direct from the factory and the prices are right.

caused of stealing the Conservative platform. The present Grand Trunk Pacific railway bill was not satisfactory to the people of the west. (cheers). He believed additional members were granted the Territories in the expectation that Liberals would be elected. W. A. Griesbach was greeted with cheers in coming to the platform. He spoke a few words of welcome to any young men present to join the Conservative association. Mr. Bradbury believed that a large wing of the Quebec French Canadians would turn over and become Conservatives in the next election. Mr. McIntosh believed that the Conservative protective tariff policy was the only policy for the west. The manufacturers, he said, who had visited Edmonton would join with him in advocating a high tariff policy. J. W. Shera spoke at some length on the policy of the Conservative party from a western standpoint. The meeting broke up with cheers for Borden and Monk.

RIFLE MATCH.

Bad Weather Continues at the Fort Saskatchewan Rifle
Association Annual Matches

(Bulletin Special Dispatch).

Fort Saskatchewan, Sept. 26.—The annual matches of the Fort Saskatchewan Rifle Association are still in progress. The Merchants match was shot yesterday afternoon. It consisted of seven shots each at the 600 yard range. The score stood, Haddock, 31; Reid, Edmonton, 30; Foxley, Edmonton, 30; McKenzie, Strathcona, 28; Carmichael, Strathcona, 23; Corp. McLehlan, 24; Rev. D'Amour, 23; Lattimore, 23; Bennett, 23; Featherstone, 22; J. McLehlan, 22; Strathcona, 21; Daniel, 21; Graham, 17.

The wind was strong and unsteady and frequent showers of rain made good shooting almost impossible.

Fort Saskatchewan, Sept. 25.—Carmichael wins the Patrons' match with a score of 12. He would have made the possible at the 600 yard range, only the man he shot with shook the mound. Edmonton men are showing up better. The wind is steadier, but the weather is still dull. The Patrons' match, 300 and 600 yards, 5 shots each, resulted as follows: Carmichael, 32; Bennett, 30; Featherstone, 35; Corp. McLehlan, 33; McKenzie, 33; J. McLehlan, 32; J. Forbes, 32; Riddick, 31; Lattimore, 29; Buzen, 25. The Merchants match is now on.

The Charm of Music

is only fully realized when the instrument used is perfect in tone, touch and action.

Long experience enables us to select instruments of flawless construction and superb tone.

There is in our store now a good variety of first-class instruments, including pianos down to the smallest harmonica.

We would be pleased to have a visit from those who contemplate purchasing or wish to effect an exchange. Our terms are satisfactory.

IN THE BRIGHT LIGHT

—the searchlight of criticism—that is turned up a man by his friends when he dons a new suit, the garments must appear perfect in every particular or he will be told that he has been badly stuck.

If you favor us with the order the garments will be as though moulded to your form. We do
